

An Officer and a Gentleman

SANDHURST ACADEMY VISIT ON WED 17 MAY 2023

The Royal Military Academy of Sandhurst is where the elite of the British Army train to be officers.

Learn the history of this unique establishment, where officer training has continued since 1812. Stand in rooms where many statesmen and rulers have trained including our King, HRH Prince of Wales and Winston Churchill. Learn about key military figures including the Duke of Wellington and 1st Duke of Marlborough.

Please note: As a military establishment all visitors must bring photo ID (passport, driving licence, etc) when visiting the Academy

Visitors' names must be submitted before 10 April

PRICE £46.00 per person, to include coach travel by executive coach (Pick-up from Kings at 8.30am - stop outside Asda) and driver's gratuity (All day parking at Asda is available through Horizon on-line at £2.50 per day or JustPark on-line at £4.50 per day)

Refreshments will be provided on arrival and you will meet former serving military with fascinating stories to tell..

This is not a trip just for the men – even the girls will be captivated!

After our tour we will head for Longacre Garden Centre for lunch at approximately 1.00pm

Longacres Bagshot is the largest independent garden centre in the south of England. This fantastic centre has been family run since opening in 1979 and has grown significantly over the years. There is a food hall and bakery.

The Greenhouse Cafe is an interpretation of a modern continental café. It's a warm and friendly meeting place. The menu is Italian influenced, offering an appetising range of dishes to suit all tastes including traditional. They make a delicious pizza made in a wood-fired oven.
